

WESTCHESTER COUNTY FAITH-BASED MENTAL HEALTH INITIATIVE

Presents:

“Building a Soul Safe Community”

Date: Tuesday, March 22, 2022

Time: 5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Virtual Panel Discussion

Gain knowledge and skills in addressing the mental health needs of your faith-based community.
Create a network of Faith Based leaders in Westchester County to address suicide/mental health challenges.
Introduce various training opportunities and mental health resources to the faith based community

Panelists:

Michelle Snyder, MSW Soul Shop Trainer

Rev. Daphne Swinton, LMHC, MPA

Minister of Christian Care & Counseling Union Baptist Church, White Plains, NY

Marie Considine, Executive Director, NAMI Westchester

Registration Link:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/building-a-soul-safe-community-tickets-272108061537>

Any questions please contact Pat White pwhite1220@gmail.com

The mission of the Westchester County Faith-Based Mental Health Initiative is designed to equip clergy, staff, faith leaders and Mental Health clinicians with the resources and guidance to foster hope and healing in their community. This is accomplished by increasing mental health awareness and support throughout the faith community. The group of interfaith leaders includes a diverse group of faith leaders from various denominations, ministerial leaders, and Mental Health providers and community members.

Westchester
gov.com

George Latimer, County Executive
Michael Orth, Commissioner
Department of Community Mental Health